

1983 Learned Societies Meeting
University of British Columbia

CALL FOR PAPERS

I. Special Session: Preface as Genre

Papers which are accepted to this session will be presented in the following mode.

- (a) All papers will be presented and discussed by the reporter of the session during one hour. Papers will not be read.
- (b) Poster size one-page abstracts of each paper will be posted on the walls outside the lecture room.
- (c) Xerox copies will be provided of the full paper for those participants who request it.

All colleagues who are interested in participating in this session should send an abstract of their proposed paper to:

Professor Milan Dimić
Comparative Literature
University of Alberta, Edmonton. T6G 2E6

II. Session on: Speech Act Theory: Its Applications and Limitations

Plenary speaker: Mary Louise Pratt

All colleagues who are interested in participating in this session with 20 minute (10 page papers) please send an abstract of your proposal to:

Professor Linda Hutcheon
Comparative Literature
14045 Robarts Library
University of Toronto
Toronto, Ontario M5S 1A5

III. Session on: Dante and World Literature

Plenary speaker: TBA

All colleagues who are interested in participating in this session with 20 minutes (10 page papers) please send an abstract of your proposal to:

Professor Linda Hutcheon
Comparative Literature
14045 Robarts Library
University of Toronto

Toronto, Ontario M5S 1A5

IV. General Sessions on Comparative Literature

All proposals for papers for the open sessions should be addressed:

Professor M.J. Valdés
Comparative Literature
14045 Robarts Library
University of Toronto
Toronto, Ontario M5S 1A5

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION JANUARY 15th.

REMINDER

ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIPS EXPIRE DECEMBER 31
PLEASE HELP US BY RENEWING PROMPTLY.